

Community Center Plans?

First meeting of the Orinda Association's committee to study the problem of what to do with the eight acres of Community Center land was held Wednesday night at Orinda Grammar School.

Two approaches were decided upon:

1. — To get in touch with the various organizations in Orinda, asking for their recommendation.
2. — To ask the teen-agers of the community what they would like in recreational facilities.

Getting the opinion of Orinda young people was the idea of Dr. Ralph Hall.

JOSEPH L. SHEAFF, Orinda schools superintendent, was elected chairman of the committee. Other members are Dr. Hall, William Penn Mott Jr., Mrs. A. D. Henry and Mrs. Ned de Laveaga. All were present Wednesday night except Mott, who is in the East on a business trip.

Nominating Group To Prepare for Association Vote

In preparation for the annual December election of Orinda Association directors, a meeting of the nominating committee is planned for some evening next week.

As chairman of the Civic Affairs Committee, which serves as the nominating arm, Zach Montgomery will be nominating committee chairman. He announced this week that he had appointed Nels Hamburg, Harold Rote and Clint Hallsted to the nominating committee and that they had all agreed to serve.

He added that he would also ask Mrs. Helen Drews to be on the nominating committee.

Next week's meeting will be at Montgomery's home at 6 Overhill Court.

SIX DIRECTORS are to be elected to the nine-member board. The three holdover directors, who have another year to serve, are Jack Buchter, Stanley Allen and Kendrick Morrish.

"Association by-laws specify that board members should be from different voting precincts and that more candidates must be nominated than there are vacancies," Montgomery said.

"So the nominating committee will nominate two or more candidates from each precinct not represented by the three holdover directors. The membership will vote for one candidate from each precinct."

SINCE THERE ARE nine precincts in the Orinda School District, and since six are to have representatives added to the 1952 board, the names of at least 12 candidates will be before the membership.

The by-laws also provide that additional candidates can be nominated by written selection by five or more members each.

The election, which must be completed during December, will be by mail-balling. All who have paid their 1952 dues by election time will receive ballots and will be eligible to vote.

70 Hear Board Tell 'Why' of $1.75 Tax Limit

The best attended meeting ever held by the Orinda School Board, according to Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff, took place at Orinda School last Monday night.

Reason — the 70 or so persons present came to hear an explanation of the need for a $1.75 tax limit for seven years, starting July 1, 1952.

Approval of the proposal is asked by the board at an election December 4.

Board President Edgar Stewart explained the reasons for the request and answered many questions. Sheaff, other board members and Architect Jack Buchter also participated in the discussion.

Sheaff reported that questions were mainly on why an increase in the tax limit is necessary, and that no outright opposition was expressed.

Stewart and the other school officials explained that efforts are being made to cut cost of the projected Sleepy Hollow School, scheduled for opening by September, 1952, to a minimum.

ALSO MENTIONED was the quest for a fourth grammar school site in the Moraga Del Rey section.

Estimated cost of the Sleepy Hollow project was reported at almost $325,000 for the initial seven-classroom development, including about $260,000 for construction plus cost of sewer service and land acquisition.

"WE ARE GRATIFIED at the large turnout," Sheaff said. "It shows that the people of Orinda are aware of the importance of school problems."

Because of the large crowd and the length of the discussion — almost three hours — it was decided to postpone study of progress of detailed plans for the Sleepy Hollow School until a special meeting some evening next week. Date of the special session was not decided on Monday night.

Puppet Show Set For Tomorrow

The children's theater class of Mills College will present the puppet show "Puss in Boots" at 10:30 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. tomorrow in the Orinda School auditorium, in a program sponsored by the Orinda Mothers Club.

L. Louise Stephens, associate professor of drama at Mills, will narrate the story, while puppets perform with the assistance of seven girls.

The cellophane and cardboard puppets were made by Ruth Pfeiffer as part of her work for a drama degree and are moved from below the stage on wires.

A movie cartoon and movie short also will be shown to round out an approximately hour-long show, according to Mrs. Jean Henderson, chairman of children's entertainment for Mothers Club. Admission will be 25 cents.

Jerry G. Farrar's application for permission to operate a rock quarry near Oak Springs Unit 3 met sharp protest this week, and indications were that widespread community interest in the matter would be expressed prior to the Board of Supervisors hearing November 26.

Clarence E. Betz, who wrote an objecting letter to Chairman Jack Cummings of the Board of Supervisors, stated that a delegation would attend the 10 a. m. hearing on the 26th in Martinez.

The problem is slated for discussion at the November 19 meeting of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee, according to Chairman Zach Montgomery.

Betz said he has written letters to the Oak Springs Improvement Association, Orindans, Inc., Lost Valley Improvement Association, Moraga Woodlands Improvement Association, the Civic Affairs Committee and the Orinda Association Board of Directors.

PRESIDENT KIRK MILES of the Orinda Association reported that Mrs. Donald M. Jonte of 47 Lost Valley Drive had phoned him, expressing concern over the proposed quarry.

In a letter to District Attorney Francis W. Collins, Betz asked if Farrar's application could be legally granted. "It is my understanding," he wrote, "that a part or all of the property is within the confines of the Orinda Union School District."

"If my assumption is correct, then there can be no new commercial or business operations except at the Crossroads and in the Village, in accordance with the ordinance as adopted."

The proposed quarry site is on Maria Domingo property west of Moraga Highway where Brookside Road intersects Moraga Highway across on the other side of the road.

"THINK WHAT AN operation such as this will do to my property, the Don Hunter property and Stanley Allen's property," Betz wrote Cummings. "It will also adversely affect property values along Moraga Highway."

Betz pointed out that Brookside Road and Moraga Highway is a bus stop for both grammar and high school students, and that the neighborhood has many children not at school. Heavy trucks from the quarry "would be a definite hazard," he claimed.

On the west of the proposed site is the Kaiser-Upton quarry.

Orinda G.O.P. Women to Elect

The Orinda Women's Republican Club will meet at 10 a.m. Thursday at the social hall of Orinda Community Church. Nomination and election of officers will take place.

After the business session a talk on China will be given by Dr. William Z. L. Sung, outstanding Chinese educator.

Mothers who need baby-sitting service are asked to call Mrs. John Ogden, Orinda 2377, or Mrs. Clarence Hughes, Orinda 2976.

The Winner! Broadway's Queen

Pretty Mrs. Lois Hunter Brodrick, 30-year-old Orinda mother of two daughters, reigns today as Queen of Broadway-Walnut Creek.

The attractive and charming Mrs. Brodrick—candidate of the Orinda Sun—walked away with an orchid crown and an armful of gifts including a diamond watch last night.

"We are gratified at the large turnout," Sheaff said. "It shows that the people of Orinda are aware of the importance of school problems."

SMILES COME TO THE FACES of Korean war orphans at the He-Myung Orphanage at Seoul when gifts arrive from Mrs. L. E. Donald Sr. of Lafayette. ## Eighty Children at Korean Orphanage Are Aided by Work of Lafayette Woman

By DORIS SAGE

Across the many miles that separate the United States and Korea, a Lafayette woman, Mrs. L. E. Donald Sr. of 3333 Moraga Boulevard, has found a means of bringing some brightness to a group of Korean orphans.

Through letters to her niece in Berkeley, written in Korea by the latter's husband, Major Charles E. Friedman, Civil Assistance Corps officer of the 25th "Tropic Lightning" Infantry Division, Mrs. Donald learned of the plight of a group of 80 war orphans at the He-Myung Orphanage in Seoul.

Somewhat, these youngsters, ranging in age from two to 15 years, hungry and almost unable to go on, have found their way to the orphanage in war-torn Seoul where food and care is stretched as far as possible to give some measure of comfort to the waifs.

BUT HE-MYUNG ORPHANAGE is probably one of the most needy in the world! Like the youngsters who have found shelter there, it plainly shows the ravages of the waves of fighting that have wrought such destruction—but its staff is struggling to do a job—and Mrs. Donald is helping.

Spurred by her nephew's graphic written descriptions of the terrible need, Mrs. Donald has been making up boxes of supplies and sending them to do their part in making the youngsters' lives brighter.

FOUR CARTONS, containing the things Major Friedman said were so needed, have been sent, and another is ready for its mercy trek now, Mrs. Donald says.

Muslim to be made into Korean-type clothing by welfare workers there; needles and thread; scissors, soap, vitamin tablets which were given by Dr. Clifford Feiler, and powdered milk, toothpaste, tooth powder and an additional supply of life-bolstering vitamins offered by

"Doc" Richards and his wife from their pharmacy, have all found use at the orphanage already.

Wool left from afghans she has made for herself in the past has been used by Mrs. Donald to make hoods for her young "foster" charges and are already packed, ready to go in this next box.

Mrs. W. T. Hughes of O'Connor Drive helped in crocheting these coverings that will keep small heads protected in the cold Korean winter.

A football found its way into the box; sweaters; and then color books and other simple toys.

MAJOR FRIEDMAN'S letters stress that the simplest toys bring happiness to the boys and girls—and the mama-san in charge of the youngsters "was all smiles and thanked me over and over for the muslin and thread and needles."

In telling of the assistance needed, Major Friedman explained that three dollars a month per child would take care of food, clothing, schooling, and leave a bit for maintenance of the building, if anyone wished to contribute money.

"THEY REALLY NEED help," he said. "They overflow from a small building into a tent in the yard where they sleep on single blankets on the ground."

He-Myung Orphanage's Lafayette benefactress has taken on a big job, and one in which others could help. She is making up these boxes of friendship "on her own" but would like others to know that if they are interested, it's a project they could aid in, too, and asks that they contact her for particulars.

Major Friedman, who was formerly employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company in Berkeley, where his home is, has said he feels "that any contributions to charity could not find a better or more worthy cause than the He-Myung Orphanage in Seoul, Korea."

FROM MILTIE

You can weigh your dog, cat or baby on the ordinary bathroom scale. Weigh yourself first, then hold pooch, kitty or baby in your arms and step on the scale again. The difference in the readings is the weight you're after.

This is perhaps the most senseless household hint of the age. I've never yet seen a clean dog or cat, so you either have to change into your dirty clothes or you'll get dirty or else wash the mutt first so that you won't get dirt and fleas all over your nice clean dress. Of course you can always wrap the lovely animal in wax paper to protect yourself.

When you're on your hands and knees waxing the floors, clean and wax the feet and bottoms of chairs and other pieces of furniture while you're at it. Then they won't leave ugly marks when you move them about.

First in the series will be a film and a lecture by Howard L. Orans at Mt. Diablo High School auditorium Tuesday at 8 p.m. The lecture and film are free to the public. Orans will describe the wild life of Lake Michigan.

Other lectures in the series are: "Ozark Idyll," December 6; "Fun with Birds," January 8; "Our National Parks," February 5; "Trails for the Millions," March 4.

Contractors Will Meet on Tuesday

The General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County will hold its monthly general membership meeting at 7 p.m. Tuesday at the Villa, in Pittsburg, according to president Donald J. Lawrie.

Lawrie said that local matters of utmost concern to the home building industry will be discussed.

"Of great concern to the future of our county is the request of the Planning Commission that the minimum lot size for residential purposes in agricultural districts be one-half acre," Lawrie asserted. "The cost to the prospective resident of the county would entail more than the added land cost, as the charges of the added streetwork, utility lines, etc. would of necessity be incorporated in his costs."

Also to be discussed is a proposed ordinance that would require in-

Scout Fund Drive Total Between $18 - 20,000

Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette, general chairman of the recent Boy-Scout Finance Drive, reported this week that money is still being banked by captains.

However, Mrs. Barnette stated the returns indicate the total will run between $18,000 and $20,000. On behalf of the two organizations, Mrs. Barnette wishes to express appreciation to all those who donated as well as to the solicitors for their cooperation.

Over 300 Hear Norris, Knowland

More than 300 Contra Costa Republicans attended the $100-a-plate Preparedness Dinner Monday night at Diablo Country Club.

Film Actor Ward Bond, serving as master of ceremonies, introduced novelist Kathleen Norris, who spoke on the "Women's Job in 1952." Robert Di Giorgio of San Francisco praised this fund-raising campaign.

William Fleager, chairman of the dinner, expressed gratitude for the G. O. P. turnout and said this demonstration showed that the 1952 Republican campaign fund will register a substantial increase.

Senator William F. Knowland, guest speaker, attacked the present administration, stating that more than $320,000,000,000 has been spent in the past seven years — and that for 152 years up through Franklin Roosevelt's term of office, only $180,000,000,000 for the entire U. S. government had been spent.

On the humorous side, Sid Snow of the Oakland Zoological Park showed off Miss Effie, 20-month-old baby elephant. She demonstrated the Republican salute — and many other talents.

Guild's Bazaar Nets $650 Plus Gift of $75

The Bazaar, Silver Tea and dinner of the Women's Guild November 1 in the enlarged social hall of Orinda Community Church was a social and financial success.

Besides an anonymous gift of $75, the guild netted $650 or more from its sale of hand-made articles, cooked food, white elephants, used books and other items and from the well-attended Children's Fair and the dinner.

The Guild has expressed special thanks to Hills Brothers, who donated all the coffee through their representative, Robert Boyle of Orinda, and to Black's Market, which furnished the hams at a special discount.

AT LEAST 230 adults and children stayed for the dinner.

Unsold magazines and books will be sent to Camp Stoneman.

Mrs. Peter Veitch's African violet booth was very popular. She has announced that she will raise and sell African violet plants throughout the year as her contributing project for the Guild. Any one wanting to order a plant may call her at her home, 154 Camino Sorbrante, Orinda 2419.

Another continuing project is that of Mrs. Ted Schilling, 94 El Toyonal, Orinda 2887, who has a fine assortment of greeting cards, wrappings and ribbons.

SECTION 3, COMPOSED of clever hand-crafters and gift-makers who put on an entertaining marionette show in the Children's Fair, announces it is going to make a number of marionette characters for shows they hope to give at children's birthday parties.

Section 3 members feel parents will be delighted to have some one like Mildred Twining and her assistants help on their entertainment problem for little folks at a reasonable cost. A portable stage has already been made.

About Our Happy Country Folk

By EDITH BOLMAN

AND NOW THAT THE LOCAL MERCHANTS have hosed down their plate glass windows, and we have thrown away our slightly mildewed pumpkin, and all local witches, skeletons, Spanish señoritas, Chinese coolies and "Men from Mars" are back in their school clothes, we pause to consider the recent Hallowe'en goings-on which were calculated to scare the wits out of practically everybody.

One very small skeleton walked up a very dark path toward a very dark front door, but came scampering back to her parents' car in a panic, saying, "I stepped on something that blowed—so I blowed!"

Incidentally, the haul was excellent this year, and we have all been enjoying the copious and tasty treats raked in by our family representative.

And oh, those caramel popcorn balls (courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Boyesen). By the way, what a set-up—small skeleton goes to door, rings bell, waits, then voice from loudspeaker announces right in her ear, "Children will please come to side door for handouts"—small skeleton momentarily set back on her heels but quickly regains composure and starts in the wrong direction for side door.

A few succinct suggestions from male parent in car (without benefit of loudspeaker, fortunately) and small skeleton gets on the right track, makes haul and scrambles back in car to divvy up with fond parents.

Of course, there was the annual parade at school, with many fond mamas witnessing their handiwork.

After school one ingenious mother, Mrs. Ritchie Smith, gathered together many of Debbie's friends for a real hang-up celebration. One pastime planned was a taste game—the children were blindfolded and tasted sundry foods, including a peeled grape (now, confidentially, can you imagine peeling grapes for that crowd?).

Another game was a modeling game with chewing gum and toothpicks (now, confidentially, can you give us the name of a good chewing gum solvent?).

OUR INFORMER (full grown mind you) went to the Lions Club party at the Orinda Theater and had a simply magnificent time.

First, her serious reaction to the plan was that the Lions Club had terial. Mrs. A. W. Bowron had done an attractive arrangement on the mantel of chrysanthemums and native shrubbery now turning to beautiful autumn colors.

Members who won plants were Mesdames William Kilgo, Earl De Soto, Jefferson Larkey, Eugene Shurtleff and Alpheus Clement Jr. Being a working group, they are already planning their outdoor entry for the California Spring Garden Show, and Mrs. Haywood Gathings and Mrs. William Mordy are going to shoulder responsibility for that one.

She was entranced with the costumes, the movies and the games—particularly the tying on of a feather duster to the rear promontory of certain selected participants for the purpose of dusting ping-pong balls off the stage with the same. (We are toying with the idea of trying that one ourselves sometime—after the rest of the family has gone out, of course).

AND NOW BACK to sensible business.

The last Orinda Garden Club meeting held November 1 at Orinda Country Club, was for the purpose of giving new ideas to old Orinda gardeners through the learned information of Ernest Wertheim, an important landscape architect.

He spoke on "Typical Orinda Gardens" and brought examples of shrubs, vines and other plant ma-

Dons Meet Devils in Tonight's 'Big Game'

Tonight the Acalanes Dons travel to Concord, where they meet up with the Diablo Red Devils at 8 o'clock in the "Big Game" of the year.

Acalanes-Diablo rivalry is old and well-established. The two eleven will go all-out for a win, not only to enhance their league standing but also to gain possession of the trophy which is emblematic of the rivalry.

Diablo took it home last year when they defeated the Dons, who almost upset the favored Devils.

Tonight's game rates a toss-up and should find a capacity crowd of partisan fans on hand.

THE DIABLO DEVILS have a new coach, Rod Franz, three times All-American at Cal. He has done a bang-up job in rounding the Devils into a top league contender.

The Dons are a club that can give the best a rough go (witness the El Cerrito game) or drop an easy one (witness the John Swett game).

An exchange rally was held yesterday and another is being held today. Student spirit is at an all-season high.

IF THE SPIRIT carries over to J. players, the game could well be the season's best.

All hands appear in fine fettle and ready for their best effort.

Panthers Tamed By Don Eleven To Tune of 19-0

The Acalanes Dons registered a league win in impressive fashion last Friday night when they smashed their way to a 19-0 victory over the hapless Antioch Panthers.

The Panthers came to town with high hopes but went home with hurt feelings.

THE DONS were in charge of the game all the way, with the backfield of Dick Fey, Al Culp, Ed Greub and Roger Linn grinding out consistent yardage around the ends and up the middle.

Linn, operating from the left half spot, toted the pigskin across from 11 yards out midway in the first quarter, and took it late in the second period for 18 yards around left end to cross the end stripe standing up without a hand being laid on him.

Ed Greub had a good night at right half and hit for good yardage all along, climaxing his efforts with a touchdown when he bulled his way over from two yards out in the fourth quarter.

THE ONLY successful conversion attempt was made when Al Culp plunged up the middle after touchdown number 1.

Culp performed at fullback for the first time. Eric Murray was held out due to a minor ailment.

THE DONS DISPLAYED a good offense and were particularly adept with their defensive units.

Big Andy Monsen, John Daniels, Bob Borghesani, Buzz Williams, Roger Owen, Jerry Henderson, Charles Ostrom, Richard Ting and Howard Andrews proved to be tough when it came to yielding yardage.

ON ONE OCCASION they held the Antioch eleven for four downs inside the five after Antioch had gained possession on a low pass from center to Ray Williams standing ready to punt.

Ray scooped the ball up and got out to the five, from where Antioch took over, as it was fourth down.

THE DONS TRAVEL to Concord tonight for a game with Mt. Diablo High at 8 o'clock. Next Friday night November 17, they engage the Pittsburg Pirates in another league tilt.

WELL PREPARED California utility companies, both public and privately owned — are so well prepared for atomic attack — there is little chance of complete or extensive disruption of water, gas or electric services. This was disclosed by Major General Walter M. Robertson, State Director of Civil Defense.

Don J. V. Given Short End of 14-12 by Antioch

The Acalanes Junior Varsity eleven traveled to Antioch November 1, only to lose out by the margin of two conversions, with the final count 14-12.

The game was a heartbreaker, with four touchdowns called back. Three of them were of the long-gain variety from 48, 40 and 35 yards out, while the other was a line smash from the five-yard stripe.

IN EACH CASE the result was nullified by a red handkerchief on the turf.

The two touchdowns for the Don Babes came in the opening quarter, with John Conley going over from six yards out and Jim Burns rambling 35 yards for number 2.

ANTIOCH TALLIED on a 45-yard drive and on a blocked punt. Making both conversion tries good, the Antioch eleven ended up in the win column, as the two points proved to be the margin of difference.

Contra Costa League's Grid Schedule Will End One Week Earlier Next Year

By ERWIN MATTSO

THE CONTRA COSTA LEAGUE met Monday evening at Alhambra High, and a number of important items of business were taken care of.

The football schedule was changed, with the opening day of practice set for September 2, and the final game falling on November 14, making the season end a week earlier than this year.

Las Lomas High School of Walnut Creek applied for admission to the league, with plans tentatively set for limited participation in all sports except football next year and a full, active status the following year.

Addition of Las Lomas would make the league an eight-team affair, resulting in one practice and seven league games as far as football is concerned.

The latest revision in the football schedule means there will be a mad rush for dates, with most concern over the September 19 game, as some leagues start at a later time, and difficulties arise in getting together on game times.

ANOTHER MATTER settled at the meeting was in regard to weigh-ins for weight teams in basketball, track and swimming.

From now on the county office is to conduct all weigh-ins, and also will determine a boy's classification.

Classification is based on exponents or points based on age, height and weight, with the limit for Bees set at 87. Anything over that places a boy in the A classification.

The age limit is 17 years and three months with no restriction regarding height and weight.

Five-foot-eleven and 140 pounds were former limits on height and weight, but a boy can now be six feet two inches and 150 pounds, providing his total exponents are 87 or under.

Ages for basketball are taken as of December 1, swimming and track as of March 1.

SEVERAL DISCUSSIONS centered around track, with the coaches petitioning Alhambra High of Martinez to make its Relay Carnival a day instead of a night affair, on the basis that the area is not suitable for night meets, due to cold night weather.

A new event was added to Class B track in the form of a 70-yard high hurdle race.

It will be the first event on the program. The event is a new one and as a result there is bound to be a new county and school record on the books.

THE OLD FOOTBALL season is rapidly drawing to a close and the Frosh wind up their stint when they hand in their suits today.

The Frosh have had a fine turnout, with better than 30 out, and have come a long way under the guidance of Coach Wilbur Twining.

They have played no outside games and have had intra-squad scrimmages.

In their final game they outscored the Junior Varsity Reserves 12-6, to make their season a successful one.

THE BASKETBALL SCHEDULE for the season finds a number of games coming in the afternoon, with the result that many adult fans will be unable to see them.

The double round-robin schedule has been adopted, which means that each team plays every other on its home court.

Last year's method of having the teams meet but once has been done away with, after a season's trial.

Last season a tournament was held at the season's end, but that has also been dropped.

Jr. Statesmen Attending Meet At Santa Barbara

Acalanes Chapter of the Junior Statesmen, moderated by instructor Mrs. Ruth Dyer, will attend an all-state convention today and tomorrow at Santa Barbara.

Don Junior Statesmen recently held a successful cake sale to raise funds for the trip.

Officers in the Acalanes chapter are Peggy Keyes, president; Howard Neimer, treasurer; Sandra Louge, vice-president; Claudia Mauzy, secretary; Alycia Reichold, commissioner of social activities; Barbara Caridea and Bob Harrison, publicity, and Dianne Foster, student council representative.

As a group, the Junior Statesmen consider local, state and national problems, often following up their study and discussion with letters and direct appeals to responsible officials and government heads.

Occupy New Quarters New quarters at 1125 Jones Street, Martinez, have been taken over by the County Sanitation, Health Education and Dental Health Department recently.

The former location in the Hall of Records had become so crowded as to necessitate leasing of the new space pending completion of other county buildings. The new offices are still on the county switchboard, Martinez 3000.

On the basis of reports, the Frosh have a number of fine players on hand who will be heard from in the near future, as far as gridiron activity is concerned.

The days are growing shorter, and as a result Junior Varsity games for the remainder of the year are being started at 3 p.m. in order to finish with sufficient light.

Starting time previously was 3:30, but for the reason stated the time has been changed.

Last year's method of having the teams meet but once has been done away with, after a season's trial.

Last season a tournament was held at the season's end, but that has also been dropped.

Acalanes Students Win 1st Place With 'Bunker Hill' Radio Drama

"The Battle of Bunker Hill," a news commentary radio show written and directed by Dave Grievie, Acalanes junior, won first place in the radio production division of the Modesto Experimental Speech Festival sponsored at Modesto last Saturday by the Forensic League of California.

Grievie's commentary gave a running on-the-spot narration of the Battle of Bunker Hill.

Included in the cast of the show were Jim Robertson, Jerry Gray, Phil Simmons, Bob Wall and Pete Cook.

Marion Troyer, Acalanes senior, placed third in the humorous reading division with her oral presentation of "The Wall" by Dorothy Parker. Both Acalanes efforts were rated "superior" by the judges of the speech festival, in which more than 15 California high schools competed.

The Acalanes students were coached by Bert Trullison, speech instructor.

THE LAST FEW DAYS. any number of people have inquired as to the proper method of laying in drain tile to carry the winter run off.

Many theories have been advanced on many different methods but from a practical standpoint, this is the method that we have adopted.

In the first way, where a pick up of water is desired, dig your ditch and set your pitch through the area you wish to drain. Then you place a thin layer of coarse rock or gravel in the bottom and level off the bottom of your ditch.

Next lay your tile in the ditch end to end as close together as possible.

Cover the tile with a thick layer of rock and cover the rock with a layer of tar-paper, straw, old cement sacks or the like.

This allows the rock to settle around the tile before the earth or soil can get into the line. After the paper is laid in place, back fill with the dirt from the ditch.

In a solid line, to carry water from a downspout to the road or other place of drain, simply lay the tile in the bottom of the ditch, cover with paper and back fill. This will serve as a solid line to carry the water away.

Calling Moraga? Dial 'Drake 6' Starting Sunday

New numbers including the prefix Drake 6 will become effective for all Moraga telephones at one minute after midnight Sunday.

In reminding telephone users of the change, H. C. Greenhalgh, Pacific Telephone manager, requested them to obtain the new numbers from the new special Moraga directory before calling beginning at that time. Orinda subscribers not having a copy of the new directory may obtain the numbers from Information, he said.

The new numbers and new directory should not be used until Sunday, however, as modification of equipment in the Moraga central office will not be complete until then.

After the change, Orinda subscribers with extended service may dial Moraga (Drake 6) numbers direct in the same manner as they now use in dialing the East Bay Zone. When calling, first dial "9," said Greenhalgh. Then after hearing a second dial tone, dial the first two letters and numeral in the prefix, DR 6, followed by the remaining figures in the number.

Looks Like Wilson Has Plenty to Say!

By PATRICIA JELTON

He's speaking on behalf of the Lafayette Women's Republican Club, but you don't have to be a Republican or a woman or even from Lafayette to be interested in what Edwin Wilson will say at Veterans Memorial Building in Lafayette Monday at 8 p.m.

The gentleman is particularly qualified to give us the pitch on world affairs, as he has been doing no little participating in same in his young life. He is a graduate of Stanford University, a lieutenant commander in the Navy's Organized Reserve and active in public relations work.

During the war he was a naval aviator in a carrier dive-bombing squadron and was awarded three Distinguished Flying Crosses, three Air Medals, the Presidential Unit Citation and the Navy Unit Commendation.

Wilson has been very active in civic affairs in San Francisco since the war. He is a charter member of the Independent Veterans for the Hoover Report. He was chosen in a citywide competition as one of the city's three outstanding young men of 1949 and recognized as an authority on the free enterprise system and on the operation of government under the system.

"The Price of Freedom" is the title that Wilson has given his talk. He is going to talk on inflation, higher taxes, waste and corruption, and where we stand on foreign policy, and he'll conduct a discussion on what we can do to lick the evils and how we can prepare ourselves to do so.

TIDELAND OIL ROYALTIES
State Controller Thomas H. Kuchel announces his issuance of a warrant for $2,547,107.06 to the federal government, representing tideland oil royalties received by the state during July, August and September.

This brings to $10,258,000 royalty monies so transferred, and brings to a grand total of $37,505,000 of state royalties which the federal government claims.

The above verses from the Epistle of Jude are among the Bible citations included in the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, November 11, on the subject "Adam and Fallen Man."

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will also be read, including the following:

"The great truth in the Science of being, that the real man was, is, and ever shall be perfect, is incontrovertible; for if man is the image, reflection, of God, he is neither inverted nor subverted, but upright and Godlike" (p. 200).

Our Therapy Center: What Is It?...

You've been hearing a lot about the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, which, with its recent "open house," concluded its month-long membership drive.

But maybe you're one of those who still would like to know more about the Center. "Just what is it?" you may ask. "What does it do? Who runs it?"

Here are a few facts about the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, which operates under the slogan "Rehabilitation for the Physically Handicapped" and which is located in the Highland Medical Building in Walnut Creek:

PURPOSE: The Mt. Diablo Therapy Center is a non-profit, community-sponsored organization designed to assist in the rehabilitation of the physically handicapped.

SUPPORT: The Center derives its support from the Central Contra Costa community. Because of the high cost of rehabilitation very few are able to afford treatment over extended periods of time, thus individuals and organizations contribute generously to the cost of operation.

DIRECTION: A 15-member Board of Directors and a five-member Medical Advisory Committee watch over and guide the operation of the Center.

FACILITIES AND PERSONNEL: The finest and latest equipment coupled with fully qualified physical and occupational therapists work under the direction of the medical doctors of the area to bring the community the best in rehabilitative services.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE: Anyone, regardless of age or crippling condition, can receive treatment providing they receive a prescription for treatment from a medical doctor. Full pay, part pay or free arrangements are made according to a person's ability to pay.

HOW YOU CAN HELP: You can help by letting the people in your neighborhood know about the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center and about the service it offers—and by becoming a supporting member.

Troop 200 Boys, Parents Enjoy Big Bean Feed

The season's warmer-upper of Troop 200's scout parents and boys was held in the Orinda Scout House October 29.

It was a success because not only were the beans warm but the spirit was high among the 88 who attended.

After the "feed," Gordon Hawkins, Diablo District scout executive, spoke and D. P. Krotz presented two interesting motion pictures, "Navigation of the Grand Canyon River," and "Idaho."

Pack 32 To See Cal-Oregon Game

Cub Scouts of Orinda Pack 32 will assemble at Orinda Grammar School Saturday, November 17, at noon, to be loaded onto buses and taken to the California-Oregon football game—free!

Cubs are still gathering newspapers for the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center as their community project.

Mrs. Dan Lucas of 6 North Lane has lots of string for tying the bundles.

Bundles of papers should be collected from the various neighborhoods and delivered to the fire house before December 1.

Pack 32 has now grown to 13 dens, and a number of dens have 10 members instead of the customary eight.

This, it is generally realized, means a division of the pack is impending. Another pack would necessitate another set of officers, difficult to acquire. It is urged that parents be ready to help when their assistance is required.

Mary Goodwin, Mary McFarland and Roxine Huntley also received their Brownie Wings, as they were formerly members of Orinda Brownie Troop 75.

Mrs. John McFarland, troop committee chairman, also held a simple investment ceremony for the three Girl Scout leaders of Troop 75.

Mrs. Sig Groennings, Mrs. William Mott and Mrs. Franklin De Wolf received Girl Scout pins accompanied by individual nosegays of white Shasta daisies, and the well-wishes of parents and girls of the troop.

The afternoon concluded with songs and refreshments.
